Freelance Work Supervisor

Freelance Work Supervisor is a dual-device system designed to help freelance illustrators manage their work time effectively and maintain a healthy work-life balance.

Many new freelance artists struggle with time management, often procrastinating during the day and working late into the night, leading to irregular schedules and health issues. This project addresses these challenges by providing real-time supervision, visual feedback, and productivity tracking.

https://github.com/LydiaZZzzz/Freelance_Work_Supervisor.git